

Denso Australia joins the Australian Made Campaign

Denso (Australia) is a subsidiary of Winn & Coales (Denso) Ltd, a leading manufacturer of anti-corrosion coatings that include Protal liquid epoxies, Denso petrolatum tapes, mastics, primers, bitumen tapes, butyl tapes, hot applied tapes, and a full line of marine pile protection systems.

Winn & Coales was originally established as a business in London, England, in 1883, and the first petrolatum tape manufactured in the UK was Denso tape, manufactured under the license by Winn & Coales (Denso) Limited.

David Winn registered Denso (Australia) Pty Ltd in February 1954. We have more than 60 years' experience in the Australian market, specialising in the oil and mining, gas, tanking and water sectors.

We are pleased to announce that Denso Australia have officially registered with the Australian Made campaign by endorsing 32 of our products as 'Australian Made'.

"We are proud to say that 80 per cent of our products are manufactured in Victoria, Australia, which is supporting our economy, meeting local demand, customising our products to meet our customers' needs, as well as, creating local jobs.

We are also environmentally conscious by recycling materials to produce new products such as our Denso mastic", Managing Director, Paul Fortune said.

Our products are made to withstand the Australian climate and reduce the prevention of corrosion in the pipeline sectors. Our Denso tape, which is our first manufactured and hero product in Australia, is used extensively in the mining sector and is known for its durability, flexibility and ease of application.

Given our industry standing, our reputation is everything to us, and we strive to keep ahead of the ever-changing technology demands and standards within our industry by delivering high quality products on time and responding to customers specifications and needs in a timely and efficient manner.
